

13WCCS 2026 in Kyoto

Program (tentative)

23 January 2026

Final deadline of “call for abstracts”: 31 March 2026

Ryoji Sakai (IARMM & MSPO President, EM Prof. SU, etc., Japan)

Practical Approach of Health Wellbeing Improvement With Healthcare Safety

Hiroshi Yotsuyanagi (Prof. The University of Tokyo, Institute of Medical Science, Japan)

The Importance of Well-being Revealed by the COVID-19 Pandemic From the Experience at the Institute of Medical Science Hospital, The University of Tokyo

Satoshi Fujii (Prof. The University of Kyoto, resilience engineering, Japan)

Masaki Q Fujita (Prof. Keio University, Fac Med, forensic medicine, Japan)

Education of safety culture (tentative)

Kazuhisa Takemura (Prof. Waseda University, Psychology, Japan)

(Panel discussion) 1. Paul Ingram, 2. Dr Rochelle Menzies

Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia (Western Operations) / Curtin University, Australia

Growing Demands for Bariatric Care in Aeromedicine: Need for Sustainable Solutions and Prioritisation of Safety and Wellbeing for Patients and Health Workers (Panel discussion) Ploychol Thanasakrojn, Ananta chomsiri.

Srithanya Hospital, Thailand

The mindfulness-based cognitive group therapy for depression can help prevent relapse and increase mindfulness levels, resulting in reduced symptoms of depression and decreased rumination on events among patients with major depressive disorder

(Panel discussion) 1. Sirapussorn Limpitkiat, 2. Anongnud Sasok, M.N.S, 3.Siriluk Suesat, Ed.D
Srithanya Hospital, Thailand

THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN INTEGRATED-NURSING PROGRAM ON RELAPSE OF SCHIZOPHRENIC PATIENTS WITH HIGH RISK OF VIOLENCE

Juhaina Aboaghlah

Ministry of Health, Saudi Arabia

Strengthening Clinical Safety Through Epidemiological Investigation of a Multi-Year Candida auris ICU Outbreak (2019–2023)”

JOLANTA BILINSKA

University of Kalisz, Poland

Sudden unexpected physicians death during performing professional duties: increasing social and public health problem

AHMED A.A.M. SAAD, M.Sc.; YASSER BORIEK, M.D. and MOHAMED ABDEL SALAM, Ph.D.

Global Medical Solution (Medical Service Corporate), United Arab Emirates

Impact of Malpractice Claims Outcome Analysis on Patient Safety

Luca Praticò

Misericordia Hospital – Grosseto, Italy

- ① From Dr Buchan to Dr Google and beyond: The evolution of popular medicine and the doctor-patient relationship in the age of artificial intelligence
- ② From Iwakura Mission to WCCS Scientific updates to improve patient health and safety
- ③ Verbal De-escalation Strategies in the Prevention of Violence in the Emergency Room: Observational Evidence and Operational Recommendations
- ④ The doctor as a drug: towards a relational dosage. Rethinking Mikhail Balint in the light of contemporary medicine.

Winter, Helen; Leney, Grace; Hajinur, Huda; Carr, Ruth; Parmar, Mayuri

SWAG Cancer Alliance UK

Holding Care, Not Blame: Transforming Complaints Through Compassionate Leadership

Candis Spiers, Jen Girvin, and Avry Hulbert

College of the Rockies, Canada

When Care Breaks Down: Teaching Patient Safety Through a Perioperative Mock Court Case

Belén Trigo García

University of Santiago de Compostela (Spain)

Digitalization and patient safety in the European context

Antonia Anna Giorgi

Misericordia Hospital – Grosseto, Italy

Doctor-patient relationship. A new model of relationship between doctor, patient, caregiver, family: the extended floating model

Noriko Sakoda

School of Nursing, Dokkyo Medical University, Japan

① Visiting Nurses' Perceptions of Emergency Response in Home Healthcare and Patient Safety Challenges

② Challenges in Developing Educational Programs to Enhance the Emergency Response Capabilities of Visiting Nurses

Hisami Futakuchi

Sendai Seiyo Gakuin University, Japan

How First-Year Nursing Students explain and perform Medical Safety in Acquisition on Vital Sign Measurement? Outcome from Reports and Performance.

Kimiko Hayano

National Defense Medical College

Challenges in Disaster Literacy and Support Systems for Foreign Residents in Japan: A Scoping Review Incorporating the Perspective of Action Research

Oratai Pimrat

Srithanya Hospital, Department of Mental Health, Thailand

A Healthy Mind is a Wealthy Life

Maria Eva I. Jopson

Philippine Children's Medical Center, Philippine

A STUDY ON THE UTILIZATION OF FINDINGS OF RESEARCH STUDIES CONDUCTED FROM 2009 - 2014 AT THE PHILIPPINE CHILDREN'S MEDICAL CENTER

Ahmad Adli Kamaruzaman, Hafifah Kadir, Zuraida Shahar, Muhammad Azwan Ismail

KPJ Batu Pahat Specialist Hospital, Malaysia

STOPPING THE BLEED: THE POWER OF HEMOSTATIC DRESSINGS IN TRAUMA CARE

Rie Nakano

Division of Nursing, National Defense Medical College, Japan

Barriers and Facilitators of Primary Prevention Behaviors for Indoor Heat-Related Illness among Older Adults: A Literature Review Using the COM-B Model and the Theoretical Domains Framework

And more...